

Where The Corners Meet Quilt Guild

From our President

Happy New Year to all you quilters:

We are looking forward to a fun year. You have given the program committee some ideas, and that has generated other additional ideas. So let's have a good time this year.

This is a second request from some members that we bring in the name and phone number of folks who do custom long-arm quilting. They can be turned in to me or Jean Wanchick and we will see that they get into the newsletter.

And just for fun, for those who want to participate, let's try a fat quarter lottery. It will work this way: we will post the type of fat quarter for the month. You will bring as many FQs as you wish (quilt shop quality), pin your name on each one you bring in, and if your name is drawn, you get them all!! January will start with a winter theme, so bring in your snowflake, pinecone, etc. quarters and hope for the best.

See you at the meeting.

Rose Lawton

January Program

The officers are planning some interesting programs, sewing days and trips for us this year. They will reveal their plans at our January meeting.

Bring in your winter-themed fat quarters (see President's comments in first column) and see if you will take a lot home.

Last Month

The annual Christmas dinner was held Dec. 12th. It was a great success again. The food was wonderful and plentiful and the company was delightful. Everyone seemed to have a good time just socializing with each other. Thank you, program committee for making the evening special.

In Memoriam...

On December 22, 2006, one of our members, Shirley Martin, died after a short illness. She is survived by her husband, William, two daughters and four grandchildren. Shirley was a long-time member of our guild and quilted weekly at her church. We will miss her.

January 2007

Where The Corners Meet Quilt Guild meets the second Tuesday of each month at 7:00 p.m. in the basement of the Sky Bank building in New Wilmington, PA.

Do You Own a Quilt?

Penn's Woods West Folk & Art Festival is hosting our annual quilt show and this year the theme is vintage and heirloom quilts.

We are looking for old quilts, 20 - 30 years old or older. For displaying Sat. & Sun. in the LGI room at the high school. So dig in your cedar chest, your closet or attic and pull out those vintage styles comfy handiworks.

No item is too tattered or faded; we want to see the hand work and talents of years gone by.

Contact Dotty Mariner at 724-662-6040 if you have any questions. Quilts need to be dropped off by Feb 16th.

News from Guild Members

Rose Graff writes: "Was shopping the other day and found a solid wood lazy susan 18" wide. It is thick and holds a cutting mat. It has become my prize quilt tool". She also uses it on the kitchen table for food.
