

Where The Corners Meet Quilt Guild

From the President

As December, and the last meeting of the year approaches, we look back on a good year. We learned some new techniques, made new friends, and had a lot of fun.

When I agreed to serve as your president, I said that I would need a lot of help, and you were there to give me that help. Thanks go to all the officers, who do their jobs and don't need to be reminded. So this is a big thank you to Chris LaLumia, Janet Orga, Mary Ann Snyder, Janice Farmerie, Peggy Sheehan, and Jean Wanchick, who was such a support to me with both the newsletter, and also setting up the venue at the church for our workshops in the spring. Special thanks to the program committee of Joanna Baranek, Norma Garrett, and Rose Graff, who had lots of ideas to keep us busy all year.

Next year will be a fun one, and I am looking forward to both guild meetings, and also taking some (quilting) trips, and the day with Mark Lipinski, along with other highlights. If only we had more hours and more days in which to do everything we want to!

Now I'm off to decide which of the several "Make It or Bake It" ideas I will use for the exchange at the Christmas party. Can't wait to see the variety of offerings you all will bring.

May you all have a most Blessed Christmas, a Happy New Year, and may you finish every project you start.

Rose Lawton

Christmas Dinner

The annual Christmas Dinner is Tuesday, Dec. 11. At the Legacy on Rt. 58 between Mercer and Grove City PA. We hope you all have decided to attend. Everyone who plans to attend should have already paid their $15. If you have any questions, call Janet Orga.

Arrive at 6 for eating at 6:30 p.m. If you want to participate in the gift exchange bring a gift that you have made or baked (approximate price $10). For directions to the Legacy call any of the program committee or Jean.

Christmas Dinner, cont'd.

Mailing Envelopes

Remember to bring your self-addressed, stamped envelopes to the December meeting if you wish to be mailed a January newsletter.

Change of Address or Email

Give Jean any changes of address or email address for the 2008 membership directory.
