April Program

Many of you enjoy making your purses. Some are embellished with quilt patterns, others with a variety of quilt fabrics. All of them unique. This month's program presents Kathie's Kreations, a line of purses which are also unique. As I understand it, some will be for sale, so bring some cash if you're hunting for a new spring bag.

Also we will have the bag of scraps exchange. Bring fabric at least 4" x 4" or 2 & 1/2" strips by width of fabric any color, any season. No fleece—only 100% cotton.

Your "Get To It" papers will also be accepted this month.

If you want to enter quilts in the Slippery Rock University quilt show you can bring them to Jean along with a description and information to the April meeting or take them to the show location on April 18 (see p.2)

Random Thoughts....

For those of you who read the newsletter carefully you'll see that this column is new. We've had short articles by the president and the newsletter writer and now we invite the members of the guild to contribute to the newsletter also.

You'll say that you can't write anything...but let me tell you, it's not hard. You can see that there isn't much room to put a lot of words in the column (maybe 150 words). It doesn't have to be just quilt related. It may be a short human interest story, something that happened to you recently, an experience at a quilt shop (or any shop), some great recipe you found, or even how you feel about the weather. It's all relevant to us as people.

So, please help keep the newsletter "reader - worthy" and share your random thoughts.

Postage is going up again, by 1 cent in May.
